

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT, STATE OF COLORADO

Administrative Order No. 99-01

ORDER REGARDING STANDARD BOND CONDITIONS FOR CERTAIN CRIMES

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the community and the proper administration of justice to ensure that persons released on bond, in cases where they are charged with serious crimes, are subject to reasonably strict conditions, consistent with those contemplated by statute and with those designed to assure the defendant's timely appearance for future court proceedings;

AND WHEREAS, the types of behavior sought to be regulated through the standard conditions designated by this Order, including: alcohol and drug use, commission of other crimes (including misdemeanors) and use or possession of firearms or deadly weapons; and these conditions shall be imposed in all bail bonds posted for the release from custody of accused persons charged with one or more felony crimes and/or with one or more class one misdemeanor.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS THE ORDER OF THE COURT, That all bail bonds posted in the Seventh Judicial District, for release from custody to assure the court appearances of any person charged with one or more felony crimes and/or with one or more class one misdemeanors, shall contain as standard conditions, the following provisions:

- The Defendant shall not use, consume or possess alcohol or illegal drugs.
- The Defendant shall not commit a misdemeanor while at liberty on bail.
- The Defendant shall not use or possess any firearms or deadly weapons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That nothing in this Order shall limit the authority of any judge of competent jurisdiction to consider and rule on a motion by any party in a given criminal or juvenile action to modify the terms and conditions of the defendant's bail bond, including the standard conditions identified in this Order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That this Order shall be effective for all bail bonds posted on or after February 22, 1999.

DONE This 12th day of February, 1999.
