

Seventh Judicial District
State of Colorado

Administrative Order 2003-06 – Deposit of Wills or Codicils

C.R.S. 15-11-515 states that a will may be deposited by the testator or the testator's agent with any court for safekeeping, under the rules of the court. In light of the scarcity of resources and personnel to conduct the public's business in the courts, and in accordance with the Order of Chief Justice of Supreme Court in October 2003, I do hereby order that no will or codicil will be accepted for deposit with the court in the Seventh Judicial District, except for good cause shown.

Done and effective this 12th day of November 2003.

/s/ signed copy on file

J. Steven Patrick
Chief Judge