COURTHOUSE CLOSURES AND RESCHEDULING OF HEARINGS

On rare occasions it is necessary for the Court, county or law enforcement to close the courthouse(s) and/or probation office(s) in the 7th Judicial District. These closures are typically due to inclement weather, internet outages or loss of essential utilities such as water, electricity and/or heating and ventilation. When it is necessary to close the courthouse(s) and/or probation office(s) it is typically a result of unforeseen circumstances and resetting hearings or other meetings cannot be accommodated in advance.

Pursuant to the provisions of Chief Justice Directive 95-01 (Authority and Responsibility of Chief Judges), the following procedures related to courthouse closures and resetting of hearings is effective August 5, 2016, and shall be posted on the 7th Judicial District's Webpage (<http://7thjudicialdistrictco.org>) where other Chief Judge Orders are posted and available for inspection.

- B. In the event of a probation office closure, the probation officer shall contact his/her probation client to reschedule their meeting. Probation clients may also present themselves to the probation office on the first business day following the probation office closure to either reschedule their appointment for a future date or have the appointment conducted on the same day if possible.
