topic

Staff Safety

standard

THE CHIEF PROBATION OFFICER SHALL APPOINT A STAFF SAFETY COMMITTEE WITH THE RESPONSIBILITY TO DEVELOP A COMPREHENSIVE PLAN TO ADDRESS BOTH ONGOING FIELD SAFETY PROCEDURES AND OFFICE SAFETY/SECURITY.

policy

The plan shall identify officer training needs, field equipment and office security requirements and shall be approved by the Chief Judge of the District. A standard office security audit procedure shall be developed and provided to the Chief Probation Officer which will assist in identifying potential office configurations and equipment needs. The department's fiscal requirements to implement this policy shall be presented with the annual budget request.

procedure

A three-member committee for the 7th Judicial District comprised of a representative from each area office is appointed by the chief probation officer for the purpose of reviewing field and office safety and security. This committee after reviewing sample policies and recommendations from staff has recommended the following policy and procedure. This committee will review the probation safety policy annually to determine if additions or modifications are needed:

INTRODUCTION

Probation by its very nature exposes staff to a degree of personal risk. The expanded use of specialized programs as well as contacts with offenders with more extensive criminal histories increases the risk.

PURPOSE

To assure the on-going safety of probation personnel in the course of fulfilling their assigned responsibilities, and to establish training requirements and suggestions for field supervision.

APPLICABILITY

All Probation Staff
